November 2023 Challenges

A month of kindness!

This month we would like to share the great work of 52 Lives and their School of Kindness! They are a fantastic charity who help to spread kindness with children and young people and with World Kindness Day taking place on 13th November 2023, we would like to share a couple of different challenges with you for our month of kindness!

Challenge 1

Did you know that your school or community could benefit from the School of Kindness' "Kindness Fund"? They want to encourage children to think about what they could do to create a kinder classroom, kinder school, kinder community and kinder world. The Kindness Fund can provide small grants of up to £250 to help bring amazing ideas to life.

For this challenge, we would like you to think about what project you think your classroom, school or community could do to make it a kinder place! It would be amazing if you got together with some of your friends – maybe even your class - to think about what you could do and how it could benefit your community. There is a

You can find out more (and also ask an adult to apply for the Kindness Fund on your behalf) by visiting the Kindness Fund website here: https://schoolofkindness.org/kindness-fund

Challenge 2

The School of Kindness have also created a fantastic activity book, filled with 7 activities linked to kindness. For each activity you complete, you can earn a 15minute stamp, so you can earn up to 3.5hrs of stamps if you complete all the activities in the booklet!

You will need to ask an adult to download the free World Kindness Day pack via this link: https://schoolofkindness.org/wkdpackform

Once you have completed your work, please send Kate an email containing your evidence (a photo is fine!) via BexleyCU@LSEAT.org.uk and she will email you the stamp code to log your activity on your Children's University Online account!
Ideally, please send one email with all the activities rather than lots of little ones.
